

CAMPING OPPORTUNITIES

Camp Delaware offers multiple camping opportunities for Cub Scouts throughout the summer. Families choose the camp that works best for them based on how many days and nights they would like to camp. Cub Scouts are welcome to any and all sessions.

Cub Scout Akela Camp (3 Day/2 Night)

Cub Scout Akela Camp is for those who are interested in a short term camp. This is the recommended experience for Tiger Scouts.

Cub Scout Resident Camp (4 Day/3 Night)

Cub Scout Resident Camp focuses on rank elective adventures as well as activities more suited for the Summer Camp environment. This is the recommended experience for Wolf and Bear Scouts.

Webelos Resident Camp (5 Day/4 Night)

Webelos Resident Camp is structured to prepare Scouts for the transition into the Scouts BSA program. This is the recommended experience for Webelos and Arrow of Light Scouts.

Fun with Family (1 Day)

Fun with Family is a Day Camp event for families looking to spend a day out at Camp Delaware. Programs run from 9:00 AM till 4:00 PM and families are free to attend activities at their leisure.

Falley Scout Reservation

FSR houses all of these camps at our Camp Delaware campground. This campground has access to fully plumbed bathrooms and showers.

Unit can't make it?

Our camps are designed so that Cub Scouts and Adult Partners can register individually!

DINOTONIA!

This summer Camp Delaware will transform into Dinotonia, a prehistoric adventure where Scouts explore, discover, and learn in true Archaeologist style! From the waterfront to fossil digs, range and target activities, and nature hikes, every activity will have a Dino twist. Whether building new skills or uncovering ancient secrets, Scouts will experience a summer filled with outdoor fun and roaring excitement!
